Quiet Elegance in the Heart of Cobbitty

This unique listing is sure to impress. Upon entering the generous approximately 3661sqm parcel of land you will find the spacious main residence. The main home boasts four large bedrooms all with built-ins as well as a study. With spacious and flowing living areas, high ceilings and ornate cornices, you certainly get the feeling of the quality and detail that this home has to offer. The large Georgian/French Provincial kitchen has a generous island bench and quality fixtures. The home also has a large three car garage, ducted air-conditioning, manicured gardens and resort worthy pool, with an impressive entertaining area, just to name a few of the extensive features this residence has on offer. Step out the back and into the perfectly configured traditional yard area which also offers its own separate driveway allowing access to a fully renovated two bedroom studio/sleep out as well as a four bay shed. With so many quality inclusions; this elegant property will not last long.
