We recently purchased our new home through Charlie Cini at United Realty.

We found Charlie to be very professional, knowledgeable and he went above and beyond our expectations in helping us through the process of buying our new home.

On a number of occasions Charlie exceeded the normal level of service to ensure we were provided with information we need to make us feel comfortable with our decision. We were impressed with Charlie's exceptional work ethic. So much that, we wanted Charlie to represent us on the sale of our existing family home.

Challenged by a declining market and with a large number of houses in our suburb listed for sale, Charlie was able to secure buyers within the first open home and kept us up to date every step of the way.

We found Charlie to be very reliable and made us priority with both our buying and selling experience. He honesty made buying and selling a breeze.

Charlie, we can't thank you enough! We would highly recommend you to all our family and friends.
